

TEAM YOKOTA OPSEC AWARENESS December 2015

OPSEC AND THE HOLIDAYS

Twas the week
before Christmas
And all through
the neighborhood,
thieves were out
prowling they were looking for goods!

Uncollected
newspapers and
grass two feet
high—Indicators
the owner was not home, and this
caught the thief's
eye.

Now their home is empty the rooms
are all bare, If only they had remembered to be OPSEC aware

 With the hustle and bustle of the holiday season sometimes we forget about common sense security and safety practices, here are some OPSEC at Home Tips:

- When socializing at parties over the holidays don't talk "shop" around those who don't have a need to know, and be wary of attempts to elicit information, even from friends and family.
- Be wary of the trash you throw out, and is left curbside which can identify items that were purchased.
- When traveling refrain from using Military duffel bags or bags with government patches.
- Be cautious about giving out information regarding family travel plans to those who don't have a "Need to Know"

Stay Alert – Don't Be a Victim
