CLAIMS

This Brochure Includes:

- What you can claim
- Filing your claim
- Air Force Claims Service Center website guidance
- Sister-service contact information

The information in this brochure is of a general nature and is not intended as a substitute for legal counsel.

What you can Claim

You can file a claim for the repair or replacement of personal property damaged by the typhoon. This may food spoilage.

You cannot file a claim for charges to stay in billeting, pet care, temporary housing, or any expense which might be considered an inconvenience or incidental expense related to the typhoon (yet some of these expenses may be covered by other entitlements)

Filing your Claim

Step 1: Substantiate

To ensure your claim is processed in a timely manner, it is important to document your damaged property.

- Take pictures/videos of all your belongings, including spoiled food.
- Find receipts or proof of ownership for high-value items, if you have them.
- Put a value on each item. For spoiled food or damaged property, this can be as easy as going to the Commissary or Exchange to price out those or similar items on the shelf.

Step 2: File with Private Insurer

File a claim with your private homeowner's or renter's insurance. The Air Force Claims Service Center will only cover any amount left unpaid by your private insurance.

Step 3: File with the Air Force Claims Service Center

Once you have received a settlement from your private insurer, go to the AFCSC website (<https://claims.jag.af.mil>) to file your claim. Prepare to upload all substantiating documents and photos, including any settlement documentation received from your private insurer, and add all applicable information. The more complete you are, the better!

You must have a CAC or email the CSC to obtain a username and password. Once you have a username and password, you can access the CSC website from any computer. If you need assistance using a CAC enabled computer, please contact the 374 AW legal office (phone number on the front of the pamphlet)

Air Force Claims Service Center

The AFCSC is a the centralized processing center at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio.

To File with the Air Force Claims Service Center:

1. Go to the CSC website (<https://claims.jag.af.mil>).
2. Click "File Non Household Goods Claim."
3. Click "Proceed" on the next two screens.
4. If you need a username and password, email AFCSC.JA@us.af.mil from your .mil account to request a username and password. The subject line should read "Request for Username and Password for Yokota Typhoon." You may also call (DSN) 314-986-8044 or (toll free) 1-877-754-1212 between 0730 and 1630 Eastern Time, Monday through Friday.
5. Fill out a profile screen.
6. Continue following all directions.
7. After you have added all applicable information and uploaded any substantiating documents/photos, submit your claim. Continue monitoring the status of your claim until paid.

Required documents:

- PCS or TDY orders and/or Housing Lease
- For personnel who were on-duty when their property was damaged, include a statement from your supervisor stating that you were on duty at the time of the storm.
- Estimated repair or replacement costs
- For vehicles: vehicle registration and insurance documentation. You must file with your insurance company unless you only have liability insurance. If you have liability only, you must upload a copy of your Insurance Policy Declarations page showing your coverage, and two repair estimates.

There is a User's Guide link at the bottom of each page that should help you file your claim. All claims must be filed within 2 years from the date of the accident/incident.

If you are not able to scan your documents, if you need assistance with translation of repair estimates or any other part of filing your claim, please contact the AFCSC or the 374 AW legal office.

If the Service Center agrees to pay your claim, you will receive payment via direct deposit.
